

Name: _____

Date: _____

1. What is a fact?

- A. a type of book
 - B. a statement that can be proven
 - C. a person's belief about something
 - D. a statement ending in a question mark
-

2. Which city in the southern half of Georgia has the largest population?

- A. Albany
 - B. Hinesville
 - C. Valdosta
 - D. Savannah
-

3. David wants to know why so many people are moving to his town. Which question would be MOST useful to ask?

- A. When was the town first settled?
 - B. Where do most people buy their food?
 - C. What businesses are hiring new workers?
 - D. Where are the schools?
-

4. Diamonds are the hardest stone and they are mined in Africa. This is an example of

- A. a fact.
 - B. a tall tale.
 - C. a question.
 - D. an opinion.
-

5. Bobby has to write a report about Martin Luther King, Jr. He went to the library and found a book he could use. What part of the book should Bobby look in to find the page number where he can find information about Martin Luther King, Jr.'s famous speeches?

- A. its index
 - B. its glossary
 - C. its appendix
 - D. its title page
-

6. Which of the following are listed in correct order, from colonial times to the present?

- A. horse and wagonspace shuttleairplane
 - B. carhorse and wagonspace shuttle
 - C. horse and wagoncarspace shuttle
 - D. carairplanehorse and wagon
-

7. You need to write a report about whales for your science class. Where would you MOST LIKELY find the most information about whales?

- A. an atlas
 - B. a dictionary
 - C. a newspaper
 - D. an encyclopedia
-

8. Which of the following is MOST like a dictionary?

- A. glossary
 - B. textbook
 - C. interview
 - D. encyclopedia
-

9. Which statement is a fact?

- A. All children should own two bikes.
 - B. Riding a bike is the best form of exercise for children.
 - C. Riding your bike on the street is more fun than riding it in the yard.
 - D. Wearing a helmet when riding your bike protects your head.
-

10. Which resource should you use to find the distance between Atlanta, Georgia, and Washington, D.C.?

- A. a glossary
- B. a dictionary
- C. a Georgia atlas
- D. a map of the United States

Answer Key

1. B) a statement that can be proven
2. D) Savannah
3. C) What businesses are hiring new workers?
4. A) a fact.
5. A) its index
6. C) horse and wagon carspace shuttle
7. D) an encyclopedia
8. A) glossary
9. D) Wearing a helmet when riding your bike protects your head.
10. D) a map of the United States